Yanmar Expands Holdings in Indian Tractor Manufacturer ITL

Yanmar Holdings Co., Ltd. (“Yanmar”) and Development Bank of Japan Inc. (“DBJ”) have acquired an additional interest in leading India tractor manufacturer International Tractors Limited.

Yanmar first invested in ITL in 2005, and has provided ITL with technical guidance in the past. Seeking now to significantly increase sales in India, the world's largest tractor market, Yanmar has boosted its holdings in the company, acquiring additional ITL stock as a joint investment using the "specified investment business" scheme provided by DBJ.

Going forward, Yanmar will continue to actively provide agricultural solutions in agrarian countries the world over, towards further enriching people's lives and lifestyles.
