Yanmar America Presents Good Neighbor with Donation

Doug Belisle of the Good Neighbor Homeless Shelter receives a donation from Yanmar America's Community and Events Committee at a ceremony at Yanmar's Adairsville Headquarters.

Adairsville, Georgia (May 1, 2024) - Yanmar America proudly announces its donation to the Good Neighbor Homeless Shelter, an organization dedicated to helping families and individuals experiencing homelessness return to the community as productive members. President Jeff Albright presented a $30,500 check to Doug Belisle, Executive Director of Good Neighbor, during a ceremony at Yanmar's Adairsville headquarters.

"We're honored to stand alongside Good Neighbor in their tireless efforts to provide critical support and opportunities for those experiencing homelessness," said Jeff Albright, President of Yanmar America. "This donation represents Yanmar America's unwavering commitment to fostering stronger, more resilient communities where everyone has the chance to thrive."

The donation was raised by Yanmar employees through various initiatives, including golf tournaments, raffles, weekly jeans days, and a motorcycle ride, as well as participation in Good Neighbor events.

Doug Belisle expressed gratitude, saying, "Good Neighbor extends heartfelt thanks to Yanmar America for their generous donation. Corporate partners like Yanmar play a vital role in helping us provide crucial community services."

This collaboration reflects Yanmar America's ongoing commitment to community engagement and support. Through partnerships with organizations like Good Neighbor, Yanmar continues to work towards a better future for all.
